

CANCELLATION POLICY

Regular/Block Bookings: In the case of a cancellation of a regular/block booking, less than thirty days of The Hiring date, The Hirer shall pay to Mothers against Violence the total cost of the security holding deposit of £200.

Bookings made for consecutive days are charged as one booking. Booking non-consecutive days are separate bookings.

The Deposit will not be charged to the client if thirty days of cancellation is given in writing by the hirer. If a cancellation is made less than thirty days before the booking date payment of £200 will be forfeited, additional cost sent out to you to cover the cost of anything requested and already paid for by Mothers against Violence for your event.

ALL OTHER BOOKINGS: In the case of a cancellation of any other booking, The Hirer will forfeit the Hall Booking fee if The Hirer cancels the hiring within less than thirty days' notice. c) By MOTHERS AGAINST VIOLENCE.

Mothers against Violence reserve the right to refuse, change pricing, or cancel any booking:

- In the event of any unforeseen circumstances
- If in the opinion of Mothers against Violence the Hiring or its general nature, or the facilities to be provided would or might contravene any rule of law.
- If the price has increased and the hirer has refused to pay.
- If Mothers Against Violence has decided that it cannot accommodate the event due to staff shortages.
- If Mothers Against Violence has decided that it cannot accommodate the event due to Health and Safety issues
- If Mothers Against Violence has decided that it cannot accommodate the event due to double booking.
- If Mothers Against Violence has decided that it cannot accommodate the event due to management decision.

Mothers against Violence shall return to The Hirer any money paid or offer an alternative date.

If a letting is cancelled under this Condition, The Hirer shall not make any claim, nor shall Mother against Violence be liable for compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him directly or indirectly on account of such cancellation.

Updated 1st January 2026 Terms & Conditions of MAV UK (Mothers Against Violence) Hulme Community Hall Hire in WRITTING:

All cancellations must be received in writing at least thirty days prior to the confirmed date of the booking.

Failure to do this is likely to result in the full hire charge being applied. This does not affect your right to cancel under The Consumer Protection (Distance Selling) Regulations 2000.
